

Newsletter: Autumn Term 2

Dear Families,

As we come to the end of our very first term at Bradford Beacon School, we wanted to take a moment to pause, reflect and say a heartfelt thank you.

Opening a brand-new school is no small thing. This term has been about laying foundations, building relationships, creating routines, and ensuring every child feels safe, understood and valued. We are incredibly proud of how our pupils have settled into school life. Each day, we have seen confidence grow, curiosity spark and small but significant steps forward that truly matter.

Our classrooms have been full of meaningful moments: learning to trust new adults, exploring spaces, communicating needs in different ways, and beginning to understand that school is a place where it is safe to be yourself. These early successes may not always look loud or obvious, but they are powerful, and they matter deeply.

This term has also been about shaping who we are as a school; driving our ability to dream, nurture and grow. Both education & clinical colleagues have collaborated beautifully to ensure that support around each child is thoughtful, consistent and individual.

We are hugely grateful to our families for the trust you have placed in us during this first term. Your support, communication and partnership have been vital as we find our feet together. Bradford Beacon is already becoming a special community, and that is because of the people within it.

As we look ahead to next term, we are excited to continue building on these strong foundations, developing learning, enriching experiences and supporting every child to thrive in their own way and at their own pace.

Thank you for being part of our journey. We wish you all a restful break and look forward to welcoming everyone back in the new term.

With warmest wishes.

Ian
