

We were delighted to welcome our local PCSO to Bradford Beacon School. Pupils thoroughly enjoyed the visit, exploring the police vehicle, trying on pieces of uniform, pretending to be police officers, and even hearing the sirens in action.

It was a fantastic opportunity for pupils to learn more about the important role the police play in keeping our community safe, all through a fun, interactive, and engaging experience.

